
Reggae Events

Last Updated Friday, 12 March 2010

I suggest that you keep close tabs on this Reggae Links page. As I become aware of local Reggae shows and events, I am getting them posted to this site. There are already quite a few great shows lined up in the next few months. For all of you rag heads, the TwinCities now has a few clubs that you can tap into if you are looking for a weekly Reggae fix.

If you hear of an event that I do not have listed on this calendar of events, please let me know by dropping me an Email at info@jamaicansummerjam.com. Weekly Events:
